PLEASE READ THIS ORDER CAREFULLY. IT CONTROLS THIS CASE AND DIFFERS IN SOME RESPECTS FROM THE LOCAL RULES.

This case has been assigned to United States District Judge Fernando L. Aenlle-Rocha. This matter is set for a Scheduling Conference on the above date in Courtroom 6B of the First Street Courthouse, 350 West 1st Street, Los Angeles, CA, 90012. If Plaintiff has not already served the operative complaint on all Defendants, Plaintiff shall do so promptly and shall file proofs of service of the summons and complaint within three (3) days thereafter. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 4; Local Rule 4. Defendants also shall timely serve and file their responsive pleadings and comply with the requirements of Local Rule 5-3.2. At the Scheduling

1 Conference, the court will set a date by which motions to amend the pleadings or 2 add parties must be heard.

3 The Scheduling Conference will be held pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b).
4 The parties are reminded of their obligations under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1) to 5 make initial disclosures without awaiting a discovery request, and under Fed. R.
6 Civ. P. 26(f) to confer regarding a discovery plan at least twenty-one (21) days
7 before the Scheduling Conference. The court encourages counsel to agree to begin 8 to conduct discovery before the Scheduling Conference. At the very least, the 9 parties shall comply fully with the letter and spirit of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a) and 10 obtain and produce most of what would be produced in the early stage of discovery
11 as the court will impose strict deadlines to complete discovery at the Scheduling 12 Conference.

13 I. Joint Rule 26(f) Report

14 The Joint Rule 26(f) Report must be filed at least fourteen (14) days before the 15 Scheduling Conference. The court does not require and discourages the submission 16 of courtesy chambers copies of Joint Reports that have been electronically filed.

17 The Joint Rule 26(f) Report shall be drafted by Plaintiff (unless the parties 18 agree otherwise) but shall be submitted and signed jointly. “Jointly” means a single 19 report regardless of the number of separately represented parties involved in the 20 case. The Joint Rule 26(f) Report shall specify the date of the Scheduling
21 Conference on the caption page and shall report on all matters described below
22 as specified by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f) and Local Rule 26:

- 23 a. Statement of the Case: A short synopsis (not to exceed two pages) of 24 the main claims, counterclaims, and affirmative defenses.
- 25 b. Subject Matter Jurisdiction: A statement of the specific basis of federal 26 jurisdiction, including supplemental jurisdiction. If there is a federal 27 question, cite the federal law under which the claim arises.

28 ///

- 1 c. Legal Issues: A brief description of the key legal issues, including any 2 unusual substantive, procedural, or evidentiary issues.
- 3 d. Parties and Evidence: A list of parties, percipient witnesses, and key 4 documents or other evidence concerning the main issues in the case. For 5 conflict purposes, corporate parties must identify all subsidiaries, 6 parents, and affiliates.
- 7 e. Damages: The realistic range of provable damages.
- 8 f. Insurance: Whether insurance coverage exists, the extent of coverage, 9 and whether there has been or will be a reservation of rights.
- 10 g. Motions: A statement of the likelihood of motions seeking to add other 11 parties or claims, file amended pleadings, transfer venue, or challenge 12 the court's jurisdiction.
- 13 h. Dispositive Motions: A description of the issues or claims any party 14 believes may be determined by motion to dismiss or motion for 15 summary judgment. The parties should refer to the court's Standing 16 Order for specific guidelines governing summary judgment motions.
- 17 i. Manual for Complex Litigation: Whether all or part of the procedures of 18 the Manual for Complex Litigation should be utilized.
- 19 j. Status of Discovery: A discussion of the present state of discovery, 20 including a summary of pending and completed discovery, and any 21 current or anticipated disputes.
- 22 k. Discovery Plan: A detailed discovery plan, as contemplated by Fed. R.
23 Civ. P. 26(f). State what, if any, changes in the disclosures under Fed.
24 R. Civ. P. 26(a) should be made, the subjects on which discovery may be 25 needed and whether discovery should be conducted in phases or 26 otherwise be limited, whether applicable limitations should be changed 27 or other limitations imposed, and whether the court should enter other 28 orders. A statement that discovery will be conducted as to all claims and 1 defenses or other vague description is not acceptable.

- 2 1. Discovery Cut-off: A proposed discovery cut-off date governing the 3 completion of all fact discovery, including resolution of all discovery 4 motions.
- 5 m. Expert Discovery: Proposed dates for initial and rebuttal expert witness 6 disclosures and expert discovery cut-off under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2).
- 7 n. Settlement Conference / Alternative Dispute Resolution (“ADR”): A 8 statement of what settlement negotiations have occurred, excluding any 9 statement of the terms discussed. If a Notice to Parties of Court-
10 Directed ADR Program (Form ADR-08) was filed in this case, the court 11 will refer it to the Magistrate Judge, the Court Mediation Panel, or to 12 private mediation at the parties’ expense. The parties must state their 13 preference in the Joint Rule 26(f) Report. The court will exercise its 14 discretion to select an ADR option for the parties if they fail to state a 15 preference. No case will proceed to trial unless all parties, including an 16 officer with full settlement authority for corporate parties, have appeared 17 personally at an ADR proceeding.
- 18 o. Trial Estimate: A realistic estimate, in days, of the court time required 19 for trial and whether trial will be by jury or by the court. Each side 20 should specify by number, not by name, the number of witnesses it 21 contemplates calling. If the time estimate for trial given in the Joint 22 Rule 26(f) Report exceeds four court days, counsel must address in 23 detail in the Report the basis for the estimate.
- 24 p. Trial Counsel: The names of the attorneys who will try the case.
- 25 q. Independent Expert or Master: Whether the court should consider 26 appointing a master pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 53 or an independent 27 scientific expert at the parties’ expense. The appointment of a master 28 may be appropriate in cases where the parties anticipate substantial

1 discovery disputes, numerous claims to be construed in connection with 2 a summary judgment motion, a lengthy Daubert hearing, or a resolution 3 of a difficult computation of damages.

4 r. Schedule Worksheet: The parties must make every effort to agree on all 5 pretrial and trial dates and must complete the attached Schedule of 6 Pretrial and Trial Dates Worksheet (“Worksheet”) and include it with 7 their Joint Rule 26(f) Report. The entries in the “Weeks Before FPTC” 8 column reflect what the court believes is appropriate for most cases and 9 will allow the court to rule on potentially dispositive motions 10 sufficiently in advance of the Final Pretrial Conference. However, the 11 parties may propose other dates by which the key requirements must be 12 completed. Each date should be stated as month, day, and year, e.g., 13 1/15/2020. Hearings shall be on Fridays at 1:30 p.m. The Final Pretrial
14 Conference shall be held at 3:00 p.m. Other deadlines that do not 15 involve the court can be any day of the week. The parties must avoid 16 holidays. The court may order different dates from those the parties 17 propose. The discovery cut-off date is the last day by which all 18 depositions must be completed, responses to previously served written 19 discovery must be provided, and motions concerning discovery disputes 20 must be heard. The cut-off date for motions is the last date on which 21 motions must be heard, not filed. If the parties would like the court to 22 set dates in addition to those listed on the Worksheet, they may so 23 request by separate Stipulation and Proposed Order. Additional hearings 24 are often appropriate for class actions, patent cases, and cases for 25 benefits under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974
26 (“ERISA”).

27 s. Other issues: A statement of any other issues affecting the status or 28 management of the case, including unusually complicated technical or

1 technological issues, disputes over protective orders, extraordinarily 2 voluminous document production, non-English speaking witnesses, 3 reasonable ADA accommodations, discovery in foreign jurisdictions, the 4 applicability of foreign law, the advanced age or health of parties or key 5 witnesses, and any proposals concerning severance, bifurcation, or other 6 ordering of proof.

7 The Joint Rule 26(f) Report should set forth the above-described information
8 under section headings corresponding to those in this Order.

9 II. Scheduling Conference

- 10 a. Continuance: A request to continue the Scheduling Conference will be 11 granted only for good cause.
- 12 b. Vacating the Scheduling Conference: The court may vacate the 13 Scheduling Conference and issue the Scheduling Order based solely on 14 the parties' Joint Rule 26(f) Report pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b).
- 15 c. Participation: If the court elects to conduct a scheduling conference, 16 lead trial counsel must attend unless excused by the court for good cause 17 before the conference.
- 18 d. Failure to Submit a Joint Report: The failure to submit a joint report in 19 advance of the Scheduling Conference or to attend the Scheduling 20 Conference may result in the dismissal of the action, the striking of the 21 Answer and entering a default, and/or the imposition of sanctions.

22 III. Notice to be Provided by Counsel

23 Plaintiff's counsel or, if Plaintiff is appearing pro se, Defendant's counsel, 24 shall provide this Order to any parties who first appear after the date of this Order 25 and to parties who are known to exist but have not yet entered appearances.

26 IV. Disclosures to Clients

27 Counsel are ordered to deliver to their clients a copy of this Order and of the 28 court's forthcoming Order Re: Jury/Bench Trial, which will contain the pretrial and

1 trial schedule for this action.

2 V. Court's Website

3 This and all other generally applicable orders of this court are available on the 4 Central District of California website, www.cacd.uscourts.gov.

5 The Local Rules are also available on the court's website at 6 <https://www.cacd.uscourts.gov/court-procedures/local-rules>.

7 Parties appearing pro se must comply with the Federal Rules of Civil 8 Procedure and the Local Rules. See Local Rule 1-3, 83-2.2.3.

9 The court thanks the parties and their counsel for their anticipated cooperation.
